

Private Law 87-415

AN ACT

For the relief of Sergeant First Class Jesse O. Smith.

June 8, 1962
[H. R. 9466]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Sergeant Jesse O. Smith, RA44080654, United States Army, is hereby relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $483.60 which was paid to him in the form of a reenlistment bonus on June 18, 1957, and was subsequently determined to have been in excess of the amount due him by reason of an administrative interpretation. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for any amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Jesse O. Smith.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to Sergeant First Class Jesse O. Smith, an amount equal to the aggregate of the amount paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, in complete or partial satisfaction of the liability to the United States specified in the first section: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved June 8, 1962.
